

Christopher Hall

Christopher Hall is a trained classical clarinetist who found work in the orchestra simply far too serious!

So now, instead of joking around in orchestra, he does various television and radio programs and 'live' as a stand up comedian in both English and French.

Christopher has appeared in such prestigious events as the Festival Juste Pour Rire (Just for Laughs) and at the Molson Center in Montreal ... as well as in some far less glamorous, but easily as much fun 'stop-overs' as the Blind River Legion Hall and various fundraisers for handicapped kids !

He has hosted travel shows for CTV and been 'The Sex Guy' for CBC National radio for three happily controversial seasons.

Christopher now works mostly in that other official language (since his wife is Québécoise!) but still finds time to do television and radio shows in his mother tongue.

Please DO NOT take this man seriously!
